

Move ahead with Audi

Audi is a brand going from strength to strength in Australia. Amidst a year of great change in this country and worldwide, Audi remains a successful and growing brand. Solitaire Automotive is South Australia's largest premium automotive group. This is an excellent opportunity to contribute to a growing sales department within a leading South Australian company.

As Sales Consultant, you will be responsible for:

- ▶ Selling the range of Audi vehicles, consistently achieving agreed sales volumes;
- ▶ Building and maintaining relationships with new and existing customers;
- ▶ Developing and maintaining full knowledge of all products, accessories, prices and key features of major competitors;
- ▶ Maintaining accurate and comprehensive records of customer information, sales activities and vehicle documentation.

You must be able to demonstrate a successful and stable sales track record, coupled with a focus on outstanding customer service. Confidence, motivation and exceptional communication skills are essential personal attributes, together with the ability to maximise sales and profit opportunities. You will also be focussed on achieving goals and be professional in appearance, attitude and approach. Industry and prestige vehicle experience is desirable.

Solitaire Automotive offer the opportunity for career development, excellent management support and a comprehensive training program. The salary package on offer includes a company vehicle and the opportunity to significantly enhance your earnings through performance. The Sales Department operate on a five day week but Saturdays are compulsory.
